

Programme

You will soon find all further information about the EPHAR programme online.

For now, we are looking forward to the following symposia topics and programme highlights.

Symposia topics

- ABC transporters
- Animal research in pharmacology
- Atrial fibrillation
- Cardiac amyloidosis
- Compartmentalized signaling
- Cyclic nucleotide signaling
- Epigenomic interventions
- Gender pharmacology
- Genome editing
- G-protein-coupled receptors
- Histamine receptors
- History of pharmacology
- Immunopharmacology
- Ligand-gated ion channels
- Nuclear receptor signaling
- Parkinson's disease
- Pharmacology in times of crisis
- Pharmacology of obesity
- RNA therapeutics
- Teaching pharmacology
- Vascular dementia

Programme highlights – our plenary speakers

Look forward to hearing from leading experts in the field of pharmacology. The three renowned societies – EPHAR, BPS and ASPET – are currently selecting the conference highlights for you.

You can look forward to:

- Sussan Nourshargh – Queen Mary University London, United Kingdom
- John Tesmer – Purdue University, United States

Welcome Note

Dear colleagues and friends,

The upcoming EPHAR conference will host a total of 40 talk sessions (symposia and short talks). In addition, the conference will have a poster session and offer short-talk sessions to any topic in pharmacology.

The organizers plan an industry exhibit and lunch industry symposia. Three plenary lectures hosted by EPHAR, ASPET and BPS will constitute the scientific highlights of the conference.

Speakers will be announced in due course. Scientific partner societies will contribute symposia as well. The conference will be integrative and cover basic and clinical pharmacology. The conference proceedings will be published in leading pharmacology journals.

The conference will provide junior pharmacologists ample opportunities to showcase their work and will include a special social program for young people including a job fair.

The social evening will provide ample opportunities for scientific exchange in a relaxed manner including a classical music concert by the Camerata of the German Physicians Philharmonic Orchestra (Bundesärzthilharmonie).

Selected symposia of general interest will be open to the public.

Mark your calendar now and plan to attend this top-notch international event in centrally located Frankfurt.

I look forward to welcoming you in Frankfurt!

Sincerely yours

Roland Seifert
Congress chair

Abstract submission

Abstracts should be submitted in English online at:

ABSTRACT DEADLINE: 7 OCTOBER 2026

BASIC RESEARCH

- G-protein coupled receptors
- Receptor tyrosine kinases
- Signal transduction and second messengers
- Nuclear receptors, enzymes and other targets
- Ion channels and membrane transporters
- Drug transport/delivery and metabolism
- Disease models, drug development
- Pharmacokinetics and PK/PD modelling

APPLIED PHARMACOLOGY

- Cardiac pharmacology
- Immunopharmacology / inflammation / anti-infectives
- Cancer pharmacology
- CNS pharmacology
- Endocrine pharmacology
- Pharmacogenomics and personalized medicine
- Pharmacoepidemiology and drug safety
- Regulatory pharmacology and toxicology
- Drug toxicology

TEACHING AND EDUCATION

EMERGING TOPICS

Your motivation for submission
All abstracts will be published open-access and at no additional cost for you in Naunyn-Schmiedeberg's Archives of Pharmacology (Springer Nature).

Registration

Are you convinced? Then go ahead and plan your attendance at the EPHAR 2027 in Frankfurt, Germany
